Guest(s): Charles Guest, Andre Green, Tony Waldrop, Julie Estis, Bobbie Hancock, S. Raj Chaudhury, Eric Loomis, Lynne Chronister, Dusty Layton

1. Minutes of the January 6, 2021 meeting were approved as distributed.
2. Policy on Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) Training: Ms. Lynne Chronister presented revised Responsible Conduct of Research training requirements for faculty, effective with the 2021-2022 training series.
3. Anonymous Poll for PT Committee: Dr. Eric Loomis detailed an additional option for Promotion and Tenure committees to poll the group while meetings are being held virtually. Dr. Loomis shared his experience with using Google forms and will discuss any potential privacy issues regarding this tool with Kristin Dukes, university attorney, and update the deans on his findings.
4. COVID-19 Update: Dr. Julie Estis gave an update on the number of COVID-19 cases on campus in addition to the status of vaccinations given by USA Health Systems. Dr. Estis also reminded the group to continue to encourage daily completion of Jag Health Check.
5. Proctoring Software for Spring: Dr. S. Raj Chaudhury shared that we are currently hosting ProctorU, RPNOW, and Respondus Lockdown Browser proctoring services. Dr. Chaudhury announced that with the success of the Respondus Lockdown Browser, there has been a significant decrease in demand for ProctorU sessions.
6. Teaching Modes for Fall: Dr. Charles Guest informed the deans that for Fall 2021, Web Hybrid (WH; cohort model) and Web Remote (WR; synchronous online) teaching modes would no longer be offered. Course formats will revert to the pre-pandemic model and include Web Enhanced (WE), Web Blended (WB), and Web Online (WO). He reminded the deans that these plans could change dependent upon the situation with COVID-19 as we approach that term.
7. FS 1012 Non-Tenure Track Professorial Level Positions, Instructional Track Appointment and Promotion Policy: Dr. Andrzej Wierzbicki presented the proposed revisions to the policy. Dr. Wierzbicki will incorporate suggestions from the deans to further revise this policy and redistribute for review prior to a future meeting.
