University of South Alabama Clicker (Personal Response System) Policy

Approved: 5/07   Revised: 10/12

Personal response systems or   lickers are an effective means to increase classroom interaction and student engagement. Standardizing to one clicker system across campus provides benefits of decreased student costs and ease of support.   The currently approved clicker system, Interwrite PRS,